MUSEO DE LA BATALLA DE BAILÉN

Núm. :

Fecha :

Ref. :

The museum of the Battle of Bailén, in its eagerness to increase the research work of the institution, as well as to make its goods more accessible to society, puts the access of their library, archives and collections storage at the service of researchers who request it. On the other hand, the researchers must follow the norms of conservation of the goods and the strict fulfillment of the following conditions:

- Presentation of ID-Card
- Fill a form that will indicate briefly the purpose of the consultation and the property that it's consulted.
- It will not be possible to access more than one piece / document at the same time. The museum has the right to restrict access to certain materials for reasons of conservation, security, cataloging or exhibition.
- The researcher will deposit in the Museum at least one printed copy of the publication related to the research. That will become part of the library funds

The researcher must know and accept these rules. In case of failure to comply with regulations, the automatic suspension or withdrawal of the research permit will be done.
